
DETAILED CONTENTS

| | |
|--|----------|
| Brief Contents | v |
| Foreword | xiii |
| Preface | xv |
| About the Author | xvii |
| About the Contributors | xix |
| 1 Mediation and Negotiation: Beginning with the Basics | 1 |
| Defining Mediation | 2 |
| 1. The Role of the Mediator | 2 |
| 2. Benefits and Risks of Mediation | 4 |
| 3. Understanding the Types of Mediation | 5 |
| When to Consider Mediation | 7 |
| 1. Mandatory Versus Voluntary Mediation | 8 |
| 2. Case and Client Assessment | 9 |
| Mediation Advocacy: Negotiation with a Twist | 11 |
| 1. Distributive Negotiation | 12 |
| 2. Integrative Negotiation | 14 |
| 3. How to Decide Which Approach to Take | 16 |
| Summary | 16 |
| Additional Readings | 18 |
| Resources | 19 |

| | | |
|----------|--|----|
| 2 | Educating Clients About Mediation | 23 |
| | When to Discuss Mediation with Clients | 24 |
| | What to Tell Clients About Mediation | 25 |
| | 1. How to Describe Mediation to Clients | 26 |
| | 2. Informing Clients About Timing and Costs | 27 |
| | 3. Informing Clients About the Outcomes of Mediation | 28 |
| | Summary | 29 |
| | Additional Readings | 34 |
| | Resources | 36 |
| 3 | How Do I Pick a Mediator? | 39 |
| | To Select or Not to Select? | 40 |
| | The Selection Process: Some Considerations | 41 |
| | 1. The Importance of Expertise in the Subject Matter | 41 |
| | 2. Mediation Style of the Mediator | 42 |
| | 3. Mediator's Process | 43 |
| | 4. Personal Characteristics of the Mediator | 43 |
| | 5. Mediator's Fees and Availability | 44 |
| | The Selection Process: The Details | 45 |
| | Summary | 48 |
| | Additional Readings | 49 |
| | Resources | 50 |
| 4 | Preparing for Mediation | 57 |
| | Preparing Your Case | 58 |
| | 1. Diagnosing the Conflict | 58 |
| | 2. Collecting Sufficient Evidence | 59 |
| | Preparing Yourself | 60 |
| | 1. Deciding Who Should Attend | 60 |
| | 2. Deciding What to Submit in Advance | 61 |

| | |
|---|----|
| 3. Preparing Your Opening Statement | 65 |
| 4. Preparing Your Mediation Plan | 66 |
| 5. What to Bring to the Mediation | 68 |
| Summary | 68 |
| Additional Readings | 69 |
| Resources | 70 |

| | |
|---|------------|
| 5 Client Preparation | 107 |
| Holding a Pre-Mediation Meeting | 108 |
| Setting Realistic Expectations | 110 |
| Explaining Your Role in Mediation | 110 |
| Describing Caucus | 110 |
| Advising Clients About Their Role | 111 |
| Summary | 113 |
| Additional Readings | 114 |
| Resources | 115 |

| | |
|--|------------|
| 6 Ethics and Professional Responsibility in Mediation | 121 |
| The Lawyer–Client Relationship in Mediation | 122 |
| Conflicts of Interest | 123 |
| Informed Consent | 124 |
| 1. Consent to Participate | 124 |
| 2. Capacity to Mediate | 125 |
| Zealous Advocacy | 125 |
| Good-Faith Participation | 126 |
| Secrets and Lies | 127 |
| Confidentiality in Mediation | 128 |
| Summary | 129 |
| Additional Readings | 130 |
| Resources | 131 |

7 Effective Advocacy in the Mediation Session 135

- Before the Mediation Begins 136
- The Opening Session 136
 - 1. The Mediator’s Opening Statement 137
 - 2. Counsel’s Opening Statement 138
 - 3. Information Exchange 140
 - 4. Initial Offer 141
- Working with the Mediator 142
- Client Participation 143
 - 1. Interpersonal or Family Disputes 143
 - 2. Business Disputes 143
 - 3. Personal-Injury or Insurance-Based Disputes 144
 - 4. Other Considerations 144
- Caucus 144
 - 1. Communication with Your Client 144
 - 2. Communication with the Mediator 145
- Settlement Offers 146
- Summary 146
- Additional Readings 147
- Resources 148

8 Barriers to Settlement: Avoiding and Overcoming Impasse 153

- Defining Barriers to Settlement 154
 - 1. Misunderstanding the Nature or Process of Mediation 154
 - 2. Discomfort with Your Role in Mediation 155
 - 3. Relationship Between Counsel 155
 - 4. Lack of Information 156
 - 5. Choice of Mediator 156
 - 6. Psychological Barriers to Settlement 157
- Language, Culture, and Power Imbalance as Barriers 159
 - 1. Language and Culture 159
 - 2. Power Imbalance 160

| | |
|---|-----|
| Tactics Mediators Use to Overcome Impasse | 160 |
| 1. Persistence | 160 |
| 2. The Mediator’s Proposal | 161 |
| 3. The Reality Check | 162 |
| What Can You Do to Help? | 162 |
| 1. Take a Break | 163 |
| 2. Meet with the Other Advocate | 163 |
| 3. Invite Clients to Meet Alone | 163 |
| 4. Propose a Last and Final Offer | 163 |
| 5. Think to the Future | 164 |
| Summary | 164 |
| Additional Readings | 165 |
| Resources | 166 |

9 Agreement and Enforcement Considerations

| | |
|---|-----|
| When to End the Mediation | 170 |
| Settlement Agreements: Wording and Considerations | 171 |
| 1. Agreements Should Be in Writing | 171 |
| 2. Agreements Should Be Written Clearly | 172 |
| 3. Additional Clauses on Important Issues Should Be Included | 172 |
| Enforceability Considerations | 174 |
| Offers to Settle and Cost Considerations | 177 |
| Summary | 187 |
| Additional Readings | 188 |
| Resources | 189 |

10 Complex Mediation Advocacy Issues

| | |
|-------------------------------|-----|
| Multi-Party Mediations | 198 |
| 1. Before the Mediation | 198 |
| 2. During the Mediation | 200 |
| 3. Coming to Agreement | 202 |

| | |
|--|-----|
| Self-Represented Parties | 204 |
| 1. Before the Mediation | 204 |
| 2. During the Mediation | 205 |
| 3. Coming to Agreement | 205 |
| Parties with Disabilities | 206 |
| 1. Before the Mediation | 207 |
| 2. During the Mediation | 208 |
| 3. Coming to Agreement | 209 |
| Summary | 210 |
| Additional Readings | 211 |
| | |
| Appendix: National Mediation Rules and Code of Conduct for Mediators ... | 213 |
| | |
| Index | 227 |