Acknowledgments

The author wishes to acknowledge the contributions made by the following people to the writing of this book:

- My partner, Derek, who allowed me the time to research and write;
- Our legal assistant, Lisa, for providing such a fine example of what a good legal assistant should be;
- My friend Lesley, who provided an insider's view of the publishing business and many kind, supportive words;
- My friend Diane, whose knowledge and experience as a title searcher proved an invaluable resource;
- The members of my writer's group, Morella, Rickie, Anne, Sandie, and Beth, whose suggestions and comments helped smooth out many of the rough patches;
- Nora at Emond Montgomery, for her unflagging support and many helpful suggestions;
- And, finally, Patti, for so many reasons.

The author wishes to acknowledge the contributions made by the following people to the second edition of this book:

- to Derek R. Fazakas, again, along with Ray Fazakas and Anne Torrie for their insights and helpful input;
- to Diane Jamieson, also again, for once again sharing her wealth of knowledge with me for this new edition;
- to Joshua M. Bach for his suggestions and comments on both the practice of law and the process of teaching courses using this text;
- to Jo-Ann Vickers for her helpful suggestions on the book as a whole and her invaluable contributions to the sections on the Planning Act; and
- to Patti.
